SBA Borrower Spotlight: Whitetail Painting

Chris Imus was interested in purchasing the assets for an established paint company and needed a financial partner.

“Countybank’s SBA team made a great first impression and was incredibly friendly,” said Chris. “They looked over my business plan and gave me the funding I needed to purchase the business from the seller.”

With Countybank’s help, Chris was able to purchase the business from the seller while retaining all existing clients and employees. Chris now owns and operates Whitetail Painting, a painting and power wash company that focuses on multi-family apartment complexes.

Contact Whitetail Painting today at whitetailpaintingllc@gmail.com to see how they can help you with your painting and power washing needs.
