Except as provided in the preceding sub-section, the AAA shall have exclusive jurisdiction over any Claim. Both Parties waive any objection based on venue or jurisdiction being asserted over the Party by the AAA. The arbitrator shall have the power to award any remedies available under applicable law (as limited by this Agreement). The decree or award rendered by the arbitrator will be entered as a final and binding judgment in any court having jurisdiction thereof. The arbitrator shall apply applicable substantive law, consistent with the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. ??? 1 et seq. (the ???FAA???) and shall honor all claims of privilege and confidentiality recognized at law. All statutes of limitations that would otherwise be applicable shall apply to any arbitration proceeding. The arbitrator shall be empowered to grant whatever relief would be available in court under law or in equity, as limited by this Agreement. At the request of any party, the arbitrator will provide a written explanation of the basis for the disposition of each claim, including written findings of fact and conclusions of law. This arbitration provision is made pursuant to a transaction involving interstate commerce, and shall be governed by the FAA.

6. Non-Consumer Accounts. If the Claim involves transactions in a non-consumer Account (as defined above), the arbitrator does not have authority to award punitive, exemplary, statutory or consequential damages or damages for lost profits. In addition, in any dispute, the arbitrator will award the prevailing party its costs and fees. The arbitrator may award a prevailing party its reasonably attorneys??? fees. The award of attorneys??? fees and costs, however, may not exceed the agreed upon sum of Fifty Thousand ($50,000.00) Dollars.

The parties agree that, in the absence of the agreed upon arbitration procedures (which are mandatory) such court is the most convenient venue and forum for the resolution of such disputes and such court has jurisdiction over the respective parties. The only exception to this exclusive venue provision shall be those set forth with regards to the mandatory arbitration in the immediately preceding sections.
